STONE TOWER MINISTRIES AND THEIR RESPONSIBILITIES

Ministries Job descriptions

INTRODUCTION TO THE STONE TOWER SEVENTH-DAY ADVENTIST CHURCH JOB DESCRIPTIONS:

Our work in God's church is of the highest order and utmost importance. Jesus Christ is still Lord and the head of the Church. He is a God by nature of purpose and order. The church, to succeed, needs to be a coordinated redemptive and nurturing center. Through it we endeavor to fulfill His will, word and mission.

The following plaguing administrative question demands a serious answer. How can we expect church officers to be accountable and do a great job without documenting, in black and white details, the specific duties of their task? We honestly could not! The following job descriptions are presented as tools to help us clearly understand the scope of our work so we can do our best.

The order of the following job descriptions does not imply any hierarchical relationships between them. The job descriptions of church offices, ministries and roles are listed simply in alphabetical order.

Publishing and practicing these Job Descriptions fulfills a long time administrative goal. These job descriptions will enable us to measure and evaluate our process and progress more fairly and accurately.

It is with the sincere motive of a more enhanced and effective ministry that we present to you the Stone Tower Seventh-day Adventist Church Job Descriptions.

Sincerely yours in His service,

Stone Tower Seventh-day Adventist Church Church Officers and Ministries Job Description Committee

Job Descriptions to ADD

Church Safety/Security Officer

B. The Safety Officer should be organized, possess a knowledge of the local church organizational structure, and know the church membership. In addition, he/she must be able to get along with people, demonstrate sound and mature judgment, and respect the strict confidential procedures associated with various aspects of accident review and investigation.

C. The Church Safety Officer shall be given active membership on the church board.

D. A safety committee should be appointed to support the Safety Officer and assist in carrying out all aspects of the loss control program for all church activities.

Safety Officer Objectives

The primary objective for the Church Safety Officer is the prevention of accidents. The Safety Officer with the assistance of the safety committee can help the church achieve a position of taking corrective action consistently after each accident, thereby reducing major loss causes at the church.

Meetings

The Church Safety Officer is to meet with the safety committee on a regular basis. Minutes should be recorded on at least a quarterly basis. (Note: Where a church is too small to adequately form a safety committee, one option is to have safety concerns addressed by the Church Safety Officer during monthly church staff/board meetings.

Controlling Accidents

A. The primary method of controlling accidents will be formal investigation and review of all accidents at the church both actual accidents and near miss accidents.

B. At each regularly scheduled meeting, the safety officer is responsible for providing the following information:

1. What was the injured person doing?
2. How were they injured?
3. What unsafe act was committed?
4. Was there a hazardous condition?

C. In addition to injuries to persons, property losses should be investigated by the Safety Officer to determine such items as:

1. Description of the property.
2. How was the property damaged?
3. Was there an unsafe act?
4. Was there a hazardous condition?
5. Where possible, supply a photograph of damaged property.

D. The Safety Officer shall assist the safety committee with determining the underlying causes of all accidents by using the following procedures:

1. 1. Visit the scene;
2. 2. Interview witnesses to the accident;
3. 3. Check for causes resulting from anyone's actions, dangerous practices, inability, disobeying rules, etc.;
4. 4. Check for poor housekeeping;
5. 5. Determine if there was defective equipment;
6. 6. Determine if there was improper apparel;
7. 7. Record information of any other poor conditions.

Actions to Avoid

1. A. Attempting to pin the blame on an individual;
2. B. Assuming there is just one cause for an accident;
3. C. Assigning causes of accidents which are too general or vague;
4. D. Determining causes of an accident without investigation;
5. E. Attempting to take the place of the church board/administration in corrective action;
6. F. Any signed, written statement or description of the incident by witnesses, or persons involved;
7. G. Investigation of sexual misconduct incidents;
8. H. Release of information to anyone other than a claims representative of Adventist Risk Management, Inc. or the department head of the local conference.

Church Activities

A. An inventory should be made of all church-sponsored activities. Another list should be made of prohibited activities, which would include, but are not restricted to:

1. 1. Trampolines
2. 2. Tackle Football
3. 3. Baseball
4. 4. Airplanes
5. 5. Skate boarding
6. 6. Motorcycles
7. 7. ATVs (3-wheeled&4-wheeled All Terrain Vehicles)

B. An inventory should be made of activities which require an extra degree of supervision, planning, and procedural guidelines. The activity sponsor should be required to have signed Medical Consent Forms readily available. Written rules and formal procedures should be maintained and required for activities such as, but not restricted to:

1. 1. Day care centers
2. 2. Day camps
3. 3. Field trips
4. 4. Pathfinder activities
5. 5. Afternoon hikes/trips
6. 6. Bon fires and campfire socials
7. 7. Work bees
8. 8. Hay rides, skating, water skiing, etc.
9. 9. Ingathering programs
10. 10. Health-screening fairs

Areas Requiring Professional Expertise

The Safety Officer should review the following areas, and ensure periodic inspections and/or repair by licensed professionals:

1. 1. Boilers and mechanical equipment

2. 2. Construction activities
3. 3. Electrical wiring and equipment
4. 4. Fire extinguishers and alarm systems
5. 5. Heating/air conditioning systems
6. 6. Cooking equipment
7. 7. Vehicles

Areas of Special Concern

1. A. Transportation: It is the Church Safety Officer's responsibility to establish an effective and safe transportation policy.
 1. 1. Non-church owned vehicles used for church activities shall be currently insured to meet state law requirements.
 2. 2. Only mature drivers (19 years of age or older), with a known reputation for good driving habits, should be asked to drive for the church activities.
 3. 3. Open trucks, trailers, moving vans, and campers are prohibited for transporting church members.
 4. 4. Vehicles, including school buses, used for church activities shall be in excellent operating condition, properly licensed, and operated by experienced drivers.
2. B. Premises Inspection: At least once a year, the safety officer is encouraged to perform an inspection of the premises. Following the inspection, a written report of his/her findings and recommendations should be given to the church administration.

Identification of Hazards

1. C. Fidelity Controls: Amounts above the minimum allotted Petty Cash shall not remain on church premises. Monies should not be taken to the treasurer's home. Instead, church deacons should be involved in counting the money immediately after taking up the offering, and deposited as soon as possible. Ideally, this includes a drop-off deposit on Sabbath, with the church treasurer or assistant treasurer going to the bank on Monday morning to prepare the deposit. The specific task of counting the money should be on a rotating basis, and the appearance of repetition in the procedure of depositing funds should be avoided.
2. D. Baptismal Tanks: Microphones are to be placed away from the edge of the water and mounted on floor stands. The stairs and walking surfaces should be coated with a proper adhesive to prevent slippery conditions, and hand rails shall be installed.
3. E. Rental of Church Facilities: When the church is considering the rental of their facilities, the Safety Officer should make sure appropriate lease agreements and hold-harmless agreements have been signed, and that an endorsement is written listing the church as an additional insured. If rental of the premises is for non-SDA functions, the Safety Officer should review the nature of the activity. In addition, the local conference should be con-tacted for its approval.
4. F. Protection/Detection Systems: The Safety Officer should review the need for a burglary protection and/or fire detection system in the church. Should the church actually consider installation, the Safety Officer should be involved in reviewing the plans and proposal with the local conference treasurer.

Miscellaneous Duties

1. A. Review procedures for the immediate reporting of all accidents to the conference office.
2. B. On construction and remodeling projects, assure the Conference Office and Adventist Risk Management, Inc. Have reviewed blueprints for life safety features well in advance of the initial construction date.
3. C. Review contracts, in close consultation with the conference office, before obtaining signatures.
4. D. Request annual information, from the conference, on church accident frequency and severity for churches throughout the conference to gain knowledge of general exposures to accidents.
5. E. Use creative and innovative techniques to promote loss control, such as newsletters, bulletins, announcements, sermon material, discussions at board meetings, etc.
6. F. Develop a close working relationship with the local fire marshal.

7. G. Work closely with other board members on planning emergency evacuation procedures.

Kitchen Duties for Fellowship Meals

We try to get as much done as possible before Sabbath School and then in between SS and church service. The presiding elder will usually have the blessing but if he is not available, anyone can do it when food is ready to serve.

Set up:

1. When you arrive, turn on the ovens to about 250 degrees. Some people bring their food cold so it probably should go into the oven at a low heat. Put cold stuff in the refrigerator.
2. Check to see if tables have been set up in the fellowship hall. If not, grab some men and set them up. We typically don't cover them with tablecloths unless it is a special occasion.
3. Set up tables in the kitchen. Put tablecloths, hot pads, serving utensils, etc. on the tables.
4. Cut up bread/dessert as needed. Some people will bring fruits/bread that need to be sliced.
5. Some people will stay down in the kitchen until just before the sermon begins others will stay down the entire time prepping while listening to the sermon. This is completely up to the individual. Please pause for prayer.
6. After church is over, start to place the food on the table.

Clean up:

1. Clean up the kitchen, wipe down tables in fellowship hall, wipe down counters, wash, dry and put away dishes that belong to the church, sweep/spot-check floors.
2. Please do not wash dishes other than what belongs to ST Church. This is to make it easier for people to identify their own dish. Line dishes up on the table/counter for people to take home.
3. Take all used washcloths/dish towels/table linens home to launder and return the following week.
4. When possible solicit help from deacons/members to fold and put away tables (to side closet and chairs (line up along fellowship hall walls).
5. Make sure trash is taken out to the dumpster. Please solicit help from a deacon for this. The key to the dumpster is hanging on the hook above the sink facing the window. Please return the key to its place.

This looks like a lot but if there are four or five people in the kitchen setting up, it goes quickly. People are really good with helping to clean up after.

COMMUNITY SERVICES LEADER

DUTIES OF THE COMMUNITY SERVICES LEADER

The major functions and tasks of the local Church Community Service Leader are the following:

2. Discovering the Needs of the Community. A needs assessment of your area should be completed every two or three years by visual inspection; by talking with police, fire, mental health, and welfare authorities; by reviewing the news media; and by conducting surveys. A methodology for conducting a community survey has been published in chapter 4 of Ministries of Compassion (AdventSource 1994).
3. Mobilizing a Response to Specific Concerns. It is your responsibility to help your church identify social concerns to which it feels called to respond. Usually this decision will be made in the outreach or personal ministries committee. Once the decision is made you will have the task of getting the word out and arousing the congregation to action. To learn how to mobilize and organize the church members for outreach, see Ministries of Compassion, chapter 3.
4. Organization of Programs. You will be asked to recruit volunteers and arrange details of disaster relief programs, entry events (activities through which non-members participate for the first time in a church-sponsored activity), and other social action projects. These will include health screening, aid for the poor, literacy and employment assistance, and inner city programs.
5. Establish Cooperation. The community services director is asked to work with other organizations in the community so the church does not duplicate services. Contracts have been negotiated at national levels with the Red Cross and government agencies specifying what Adventist Community Services will do in the event of major disasters and related to certain social problems. Similar agreements are needed in your area. This may mean that you, or someone you appoint, will meet regularly with inter-agency committees to represent the Adventist Church.
6. Communication. You are the person the congregation expects to keep it posted about Adventist Community Services and Adventist Development and Relief Agency activities, as well as provide information on current issues. This means that you will want to utilize the personal ministries time once a month (as outlined in denominational policy), prepare announcements for the bulletin and church newsletter, and distribute a comprehensive statistical report at least once a year. Since the yearly "Ingathering" appeal is a major source of funds for community services, the community service leader will want to be involved.

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board, Prayer Ministry Team

SOCIAL ACTIVITIES MINISTRY COUNCIL

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for planning and organizing church socials that are aimed at encouraging fellowship among members.

JOB DUTIES:

1. To Plan. It is important to plan well ahead. In today's world many church members have busy, packed schedules and if they do not have advance knowledge of an event for several weeks, they will not be able to attend. It is also true that to produce an excellent activity that makes people feel good about their church family and really enjoy themselves, takes time for careful preparation. Start by planning socials around holidays: Mother's Day, Christmas, Valentines, Etc.
2. Assign Hosts and Hostesses. Do not forget that the most important element in any church social is the people. Committee members should be assigned to serve as hosts and hostesses for each event, and those with this assignment should be freed of details like preparing food, setting up tables and chairs, etc., so they can concentrate on greeting each person as he or she arrives, introducing those who do not know one another very well, watching the flow of conversation so that no one is left out, and generally supervising the relational elements of the activity. These little communication tasks are sometimes ignored and as a result new people in the group feel uncomfortable and unwelcome.
3. Take Care of Details and Arrangements. Each event requires a lot of errands, purchases of supplies, setup of furniture and equipment, creation of decorations and handouts, and many other preparations. The members of the social committee are all expected to share in these tasks, and it will destroy the value of the event if some on the committee have to carry an undue share of the burden. It is essential that the coordinator assigned to each event make up a detailed check-list well in advance and assign each item to someone on the committee.

4. To Recruit and Managing Volunteers. The crew that does the work at any church social is made up of volunteers, not paid employees. It has to be recruited and supervised with the utmost care. Successful social committee chairpersons are those who learn how to see that volunteers “get paid.” Not with money, but with friendship, a sense of usefulness, opportunities for creativity and the joy of seeing church members come closer together and enjoy times of real fellowship.
5. Be Creative. The congregation has a right to expect the social committee will plan and produce events that have a touch of beauty, quality and creativity. A sense of “specialness” must touch each freshly baked role, bowl of fruit, decorative flower display, and linen tablecloth, as well as the high school photos of the honored guests mounted on the bulletin board or the favorite hymn of the new pastor sung by the guest musician, or whatever item is appropriate! Remember that our God is the creator of all that is spectacular and winsome in the world around us and that He wants us to share with Him the joy of the exquisite. It takes a little extra thinking and effort to come up with these special touches, but it is worth it because it tells those who participate that your congregation cares.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Hospitality, Administration,
ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board

VISITATION TEAM MINISTRY

JOB SUMMARY: To care for, challenge to grow and support members in their times of difficulty by organizing a planned ministry of visitation.

JOB DUTIES:

1. To Visit New Members. Unless a newly baptized or recently transferred member becomes friends with at least seven compatible individuals during the first six months, it is highly likely they will quit attending. Several visits should be made in those six months to find out about the new member and get them involved in ministry in the church, to identify the kind of friends that will be most appropriate and to invite them to events where they can make friends.
2. To Contact Visitors. Each new person who shows up on Sabbath and lives in the area should be contacted as soon as possible. It is usually most appropriate for a first-time visitor to be contacted by telephone, and often the prospect care coordinator (or interest coordinator) will make this call. Once a visitor has returned, or requested a house call, then the name will be given to one of the visitation teams. In this visit it is important to use listening skills to find out:

1. What has motivated attendance at church.
 2. What is happening with this person and how can we care for them?
 3. Is this a former Adventist or a friend or relative of an Adventist?
 4. Have they ever attended Adventist programs such as a stop-smoking plan, family life workshop or Bible seminar?
3. To Visit Inactive. When a person breaks their regular routine of church attendance with no simple explanation such as vacation or business travel, it can be “a cry for help.” They are experiencing some pain in their lives and have found it more comfortable to quit attending than to continue. Often the source of pain has nothing directly to do with the church, but is complicated because their regular friends in the congregation are not responding to their needs. For example, when a church member goes through a divorce it is common for the other church members to back off from contact because they “don't know what to say.” The visitation team has the task of arranging for a contact immediately to listen, try to identify the real source of pain and help them bear that burden. If members or non-members that have stopped attending are visited promptly-within six weeks of the attendance break, nine out of ten will return to the church.
4. To Visit Members who are Hurting. People who are hospitalized, individuals who are terminally ill as well as their families, persons who are separated or in the process of divorce, those having an unplanned pregnancy, individuals and families of those who are in trouble with the law, families who must put a loved one in a nursing home, parents with handicapped children, the bereaved including parents suffering a miscarriage, those shut-in at home or institutionalized, those who have lost their job, and members struggling with their faith in God all deserve a visit from the church. The visitation team plays a key role in meeting this need because in a typical congregation at any one time fully one quarter of the members may fall into one of these categories and the pastor, who usually has more than one responsibility, cannot carry the full load.
5. To Visit at the Time of Life Events. Occasions of joy, as well as pain, need the participation of the church in order to bring them into spiritual focus. Members of the Visitation Team will be asked to contact parents whose children are leaving home for school, people getting married, families having a graduation, couples experiencing the birth of a child, people in the process of moving in or out of town, and those who are retiring.
6. Yearly Contact. In healthy churches each member household gets a visit at least once a year. It may simply be a “listening visit” to get their input regarding the church program. This goal cannot be achieved in most congregations unless lay visitors help it happen.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Encouragement, Leadership, Hospitality, Administration
ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board

SMALL GROUPS COORDINATOR:

JOB SUMMARY: To lead in the establishment & instruction of small groups in the church.

The life of a church is best nurtured through small groups. They provide safety zones where people can study God's Word, pray, share their thoughts, make friends, and utilize their spiritual gifts.

While they may not see themselves as such, small groups (special interest groups) already exists in your church. Whether it be a group of moms who informally gathers to share parenting notes, or your church choir, Pathfinder club, the social committee, the church greeters, cycling enthusiasts, quilt-makers and other hobbyists, these "small groups" of people already move in defined circles through their associated tasks or interests.

A natural step would be to encourage these interest clusters to view themselves as a small group and move in the direction of operating as such. This works best when a church-wide effort is made to encourage and foster the formation of small groups.

A great way to promote and encourage the formation of small groups is to establish a general framework for small groups in your church that groups can use as a launching tool. This framework should consist of a definition of purpose, a biblical mandate or mission statement, and other operational guidelines. Once they have the basic framework, they can decide how they define and personalize their particular group.

Much can be learned from those who have pioneered small group ministries. If you want to be a successful small group coordinator, consider sharing these pointers with each small group leader:

Fundamentally the church is a fabric of relationships. Jesus gives a clear command to love each other (John 13:34, 35), with His love for us being the standard. Throughout the New Testament there are specific suggestions about church relationships. Congregations are to care for each other and give attention to the needs of each other: (1 Corinthians 12:25; Philippians 2:4), forbear and forgive (Ephesians 2: 2, 32), defer to each other (Ephesians 5:21), bear each other's burdens (Galatians 6:2), teach and admonish each other (Colossians 3:16, 17), encourage and build up one another (1 Thessalonians 5:11), confess and pray together (James 5:16), and love each other (1 John 3:22, 23; 4:4, 11). To be a Christian is to join a body whose head is Jesus Christ. It is a theological contradiction to become a Christian and then live in isolation and independence. Since building relationships is a primary function of the church then it must provide settings and structures that give opportunities for this to happen. Experience has demonstrated that the small group is one of the best vehicles for the church to become what God intends it to be—a people sharing Christ, meeting each other's needs and reaching out in love to the world.

1. To chair Small Groups Ministry Council.
2. To meet regularly with Small Group Leaders.
3. To organize a new small group when needed.
4. To train someone to do your job, mentorship.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Leadership, Hospitality, Mercy, Discernment, Faithfulness
ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board, Congregational Support Council, Pastor

SMALL GROUP LEADER

JOB SUMMARY: To facilitate by leading out a small group.

JOB DUTIES:

1. To see that the following tasks are followed:
 1. Preparations. Before the meeting pray for yourself and for all who are coming.
 2. Arrangements: Make sure that the following details are taken care of: location, seating, Bibles, temperature, food, child care, music, materials, etc.?
 3. Relationships: How will you help people to feel cared for and caring? What will you do to help people get to know each other and build positive relationships among the members of the group?
 4. Study Topic or Task: What steps will you follow to accomplish the task or go through the study? You will want to make a list of questions you will use and estimate the time each will take. What are your goals for the praying time? What will be your prayer format? Who will pray?
 5. Time: How much time is available and how will you divide it? Block out the time into major segments and jot down the activity to be done in each segment. What is your "real" starting time? Your firm closing time? How will you open and close each segment? Are you attempting too much? Too little? Do you want to ask other people to take responsibility for some segments at this meeting?
2. Facilitator. During the group meeting the most important function of the leader is to ask questions. As group leader you are not the expert lecturer but the facilitator for discussion and sharing. Be sensitive to individual needs. Try to create a climate of openness and acceptance through affirmation and encouragement. You will direct the flow of discussion by making sure everyone has an opportunity to express their thoughts and feelings. Try to keep the discussion on the subject. Make sure everyone in the group can see each other by arranging the chairs in a circle and removing the empty chairs. The leader helps the group members to be personal by sensitively asking questions that enable them to share openly without feeling coerced, intimidated or put on the spot. You will also need to deal with the problem of those who talk too much. Help the group focus on solutions rather than only problems. Ask questions that help people be positive and affirmative about themselves and other group members.
3. Caring for Individuals. Outside the group meetings the leader stays in touch with group members by phone. You are the lay pastor of the people in your group. Watch for those who seem to be hurting or have questions during the meetings. A prime time to offer care and support is during the informal conversation immediately following group meetings. Try to plan your time so you can stay by. But don't let troubled people consume your time and energy. Be free to say, "You seem to be hurting a lot. How can I assist you in getting help?"
4. Outreach. A healthy group always "keeps an empty chair" for new people. One of the tasks of the leader is to find likely group members, invite them to try the meetings, and help the group to make them feel comfortable and safe. You should watch for visitors on Sabbaths, newcomers in the community, individuals going through lonely times in their lives and especially unchurched friends and acquaintances who seem to be opening up to spiritual things.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Teacher, Knowledge, Wisdom, Evangelism

ACCOUNTABLE TO: SS Council, SS Superintendent, Church Board

Other duties of the Sabbath School Adult Teacher/Leader In the class setting there is an interchange of ideas that is non-threatening, a sharing of faith and Biblical instruction. Friendships are made in the circle of fellowship; A sense of community is built up. Questions are asked and answered in an informal setting.

As a Sabbath School class Teacher/ Leader, you have a sacred responsibility to share your personal experience, as well as knowledge. "Those who teach in the Sabbath School must have their hearts warmed and invigorated by the truth of God, being not hearers only, but also doers of the Word. They should be nourished in Christ as the branches are nourished in the vine." (Counsels on Sabbath School Work, p 94.)

1. Preparation. Before opening God's Word to teach, there should be more preparation than a brief perusal on Friday night. A good habit to establish is to spend a concentrated hour on Sabbath afternoon becoming familiar with the main points of the new lesson. During the rest of the week you can dig for more material.
2. Helping everyone feel welcome. At the beginning of each class meeting, it is essential to make newcomers, as well as regular members, feel welcome. A simple question like "What has your week been like?" can help everyone to feel cared for and let go of the worries of the week and concentrate on Bible study. A good question with new people is "Where is your church home?" It can give you a lot of information and help you to know how best to minister to them. Keep some extra quarterlies on hand to give to those who may not have one and invite newcomers to participate in the lesson study. If your church has a fellowship dinner, invite them to attend. Or a good missionary project for your family would be to invite visitors to your home for Sabbath dinner.
3. Serving as the "Undershepherd" of the Class. The Sabbath School class is the most important fellowship unit in the church. For most of your class members it is the primary place where they receive support and friendship. It is your responsibility as the class leader to enable this to happen. It is recommended that you have a "shepherding time" or "sharing time" preceding the lesson discussion. Announcements can be made regarding plans. You can ask about missing members. Often those in the class will have information about these persons and some can be asked to make personal visits. In cases of illness, arrangements can be made to visit the person, perhaps to supply a warm meal or volunteer to help with housework or child care. This time of sharing opens the door for better participation in the discussion part of the class.
4. Prayer. The opening of hearts to the Holy Spirit is essential to each successful class meeting. And as the class members pray for one another, they come closer to each other and are enabled to "bare one another's burdens." It is important to take time to ask for the prayer requests of those present. You should offer prayer at the beginning and end of each class, or ask a class member do so, or ask the group to pray together in two's or three's. In smaller classes it may be appropriate at times to have a season of prayer in which everyone has opportunity to pray.
5. Guiding Class Members to Learn and Grow. The most important thing for your class members to learn is the practical application of Bible truth. Sabbath School is not so much a place to learn facts and abstract doctrines, but to grow in Christian living. Help them to make specific applications of the lesson each week in the practical issues they face everyday. Key discussion questions: "What difference does this topic make in how you live your life?" and "How would you explain this truth to a friend who does not attend any church?"
6. Starting on Time. Nothing is more discouraging for a Sabbath School class than to be assembled and wonder where the teacher is. You should be one of the first to arrive at the classroom. This gives you time to greet individuals and see that everything is in readiness. In case of emergency or illness, preparation should be made for a substitute teacher. You have the responsibility to see that the Sabbath School Superintendent is notified and that a substitute has been provided if you must be absent.

SS YOUNG ADULT TEACHER

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible to teach the Sabbath School lesson and have personal concern for members and visitors. Adult Sabbath School Teachers are chosen by the Sabbath School Council.

JOB DUTIES:

1. To welcome visitors and class members warmly.
2. To begin class with prayer.
3. To see that class record and mission offering are taken.
4. To encourage a daily Bible and lesson study plan.
5. To prepare for and teach the Sabbath School lesson. The SS quarterly is only a guide.
6. To make the lessons relevant to our lives today and Christ-centered.
7. To be very sensitive to non-SDA visitors. Support all remarks from the Bible and refrain from using Adventist jargon and clichés unique to our theology and culture.
8. To work closely with the SS Superintendent.
9. To encourage class growth by inviting visitors, friends, and missing members to join class.
10. To promote a caring class attitude by following up on missing members. Involve class members in this task. Delegate, then follow up the next Sabbath. Ask for a report.
11. At all cost, avoid lecturing. Ask questions. Lead a discussion. Be a learner along with the class members. Don't assume you have to know it all, but study to be well prepared.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Teacher, Knowledge, Wisdom, Evangelism

ACCOUNTABLE TO: SS Council, SS Superintendent, Church Board

SS YOUNG ADULT LEADER

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for leading out with the SS Young Adult class.

Duties of the Young Adult Sabbath School Leader

Although the program varies from church to church, the ministry to which a person is called as the leader of the young adult division of a Sabbath School can best be described in the following ways:

1. Planning.
 1. To bring together a team of assistants; young adults who will help plan and implement the group's activities.
 2. To schedule participation of Young Adults for overseeing special programs, and teaching.
 3. To meet together as a group at least once a quarter to brainstorm, make decisions, and create the calendar for the next few months.
 4. To delegate. Find people who can be trusted and let them take responsibility.
2. Spiritual Helper. Young adults who have spiritual and relational problems will come to you with questions which need to be answered. This may occasionally require that you act as bridge between troubled young adults and their families. If you really care, they will be able to see it. Some are shy and you will want to preserve their dignity by not being too forward yourself. Others are gregarious and want to be asked questions that invite self-disclosing answers. Listening skills are important! As you learn to know more about what makes people tick, you will catch more of the nuances.
3. Teaching. Unless you are in a very large church, it will often be your job to teach the Sabbath School lesson. On occasion you should schedule others to teach so that there is more participation. You might even consider setting up a rotation plan in which many of the class members have a turn at leading the discussion. Skills in group process and learning styles are essential to this task.
4. Building a Sense of Community. It will be your work to create an atmosphere that is friendly, comfortable and safe; where God is praised, but where no question need remain unasked. The goal of the young adult Sabbath School leader is to bring together a cluster of strangers and help them become a real fellowship. Relational skills are key in this process. Smiles and expressions of caring are very important! Even the most shy person warms to a smile. Some of the more gregarious ones benefit from a hug. In most situations, a warm handshake or touch to the shoulder to accompany the warm smile shows you care. You must not be afraid to be vulnerable. Many older adults find young adults intimidating, usually because they are able to see through facades. Unless you are open and accepting in your manner, your leadership will lose effectiveness. You are not called to lead from a position of strength, as if you had all of the answers, but from a position of weakness. Admit to the group that you, too, struggle with problems and search for answers. It is only through the honest sharing of your struggles and how God has resolved them that others will be able to see Christianity as alive and practical.

5. Commitment. Next to your commitment to have God's presence in every aspect of your life, the commitment you make to serve your church body is perhaps the most important one you will make. It is just as important as your vocational and relational commitments. Group members need to know that they can depend on you and that your attendance and participation will be regular.

SS YOUNG ADULT ASSISTANT

Duties of the Young Adult Sabbath School Assistant

Although the program varies from church to church, the ministry to which a person is called as an assistant in the young adult division of the Sabbath School can best be described in the following ways:

2. Planning. Together with the leader, you should select young adults whose personalities and temperaments best fit them for helping run the program. This group should meet frequently to help you become comfortable in the performance of your tasks.
3. Spiritual Helper. Young adults who have spiritual and relational problems will come to you with questions which need to be answered. This may occasionally require that you act as bridge between troubled young adults and their families. If you really care, they will be able to see it. Some are shy and you will want to preserve their dignity by not being too forward yourself. Others are gregarious and want to be asked questions that invite self-disclosing answers. 5. Building a Sense of Community. You must not be afraid to give yourself to others. Many adults find young adults intimidating, usually because young adults confront adults by being able to see through their facades. Unless you become open to others, your leadership will lose effectiveness. You are not called to lead from a position of strength, as if you had all of the answers. Enable your group to see that you, too, struggle with problems and search for answers. It is only through the honest sharing of your struggles that they will be able to see Christianity as an alive and practical choice. They need real people, with real problems and real solutions to lead them.
6. Interest in People. Relational skills are key in this process. Smiles and expressions of caring are very important! Even the most shy person warms to a smile. Some of the more gregarious ones benefit from a hug. In most situations, a warm handshake or touch to the shoulder to accompany a warm smile shows you care.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Encouragement, Helps, Wisdom, Faith, Leadership

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board, Worship Committee

How to Enhance Congregational Singing

(1) Work for variety within the songs chosen. There should be a good mix of songs that are fast, medium or slow. If all are slow people get sleepy. If all are fast there's no time for meditation. The faster songs get attention, help people wake up and allow for energetic praise of God. Slower songs help settle and direct the mind, focus attention and prepare a person to hear God speak.

(2) Learn some new songs. There are good reasons why the Psalms encourage new songs. A song sung over and over loses some of its meaning. People's minds start wandering and the blessing to be gained from the song is lost. Learning a new song breaks people out of the ruts. Not only do they think about the new song they've just sung, but also old songs start taking on new meaning.

(3) Search out good music. There's a wealth of music available to churches. Educate yourself on what's available. Don't feel that your singing must be limited to what's in the Adventist Hymnal. Try going to the ABC or a local Christian bookstore for resources. Be aware, however, that not all music is of the highest quality, so...

(4) Pay attention to the lyrics. Song lyrics can powerfully affect our thinking, teach a truth, be a prayer to God, or touch someone's heart. But, not all songs do this well. Words that are archaic can obscure the message of the song, while shallow words fail to feed the mind. Look for words that have depth, are easily understood, and help members mature as children of God.

(5) Pay attention to the music. Melodies for congregational singing should be easy to sing, in a range that the majority can comfortably reach. Notes that soar too high, melodies that are difficult or awkward tend to frustrate people and distract their minds from the singing to the sore throat that's developing.

(6) Remember to get a copyright license. If you're reproducing the words to a copyrighted song in the bulletin, on a song sheet, or on a projection screen, your church needs a license. Copyright laws protect the rights of songwriters, and Christians should be the first to respect them.

12. To serve as a member of the SS Lower Divisions Council.
13. To distribute the 'Insight' journal if available.
14. To train and encourage youth to take leadership roles in their department.
15. To train and mentor someone else to do your job

As a youth ministry leader it is important that you see teens as an important part of the present church, not just the church to come.

Additional Duties of the Sabbath School Youth Leader

Although the program varies from church to church, the ministry to which a person is called when she becomes the leader of the youth division of the Sabbath School can best be described in the following ways:

1. Planning. You will provide leadership for the youth Sabbath School by bringing together a team of assistants and teenagers who will help plan and implement the group's activities. This includes overseeing the schedule of leadership, special programs, and teaching. It is vital that this group meet together at least once a quarter to brainstorm, make decisions, and create the calendar for the next few months. Learn to delegate.
2. Spiritual Helper. Teenagers whose trust you have won will come to you with questions and personal problems. This may occasionally require that you act as bridge between troubled teenagers and their parents. If you really care, they will be able to see it. Often people at this age are very shy and you will want to preserve their dignity. Listening skills are important!

3. Teaching. Unless you are in a very large church, it will often be your job to teach the Sabbath School lesson. On occasion you should schedule others to teach so that there is more participation. Skills in group process and learning styles are essential to this task. And it takes adequate preparation time. You cannot expect to minister effectively to the needs of teenagers if you simply glance over the teaching materials at the last minute. The North American Division Sabbath School curriculum for teens is quite demanding because it deal with the difficult issues of life; sexuality, occupations, the meaning of life, death and dying, ethics, etc. You cannot teach it with casual preparation. You cannot significantly touch the lives of your teens by finding an “easier” set of materials to use.
4. Building a Sense of Community. It will be your work to create an atmosphere that is friendly, comfortable and safe; where God is praised, but where no question need remain unasked. The goal of the youth Sabbath School leader is to bring together a cluster of awkward teenagers and help them become real friends. Relational skills are key in this process. Smiles and expressions of caring are very important! Even the most shy person warms to a smile. Some of the more gregarious ones benefit from a hug. In most situations, a warm handshake or touch to the shoulder to accompany the warm smile shows you care. You must not be afraid to be vulnerable. Teenagers can be intimidating because of their directness and often rebellious behavior. Unless you are open and accepting in your manner, you will not be able to lead this age group.
5. Commitment. Next to your commitment to have God's presence in every aspect of your life, your commitment to serve your church is perhaps the most important one you will make. It is just as important as your vocational and relational commitments. Group members need to know that they can depend on you and that your attendance and participation will be regular.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Teacher, Leadership, Evangelism, Knowledge, Wisdom

ACCOUNTABLE TO: SS Lower Division Council, SS Council, SS Lower Division Superintendent, Church Board

SS YOUTH ASSISTANT

JOB SUMMARY: To assist SS Youth Leader with planning, organizing the staff and conducting the Youth Sabbath School program. Read: “The Sabbath School” in Church Manual.

Duties of the Youth Sabbath School Assistant

The program varies from church to church, but the ministry to which a person is called when he or she agrees to help in the youth division of the Sabbath School often includes the following:

1. Teaching. It will often be your job to teach the youth Sabbath School lesson. Skills in group process and learning styles are essential to this task. And it takes adequate preparation time. You cannot expect to minister effectively to the needs of teenagers if you simply glance over the teaching materials at the last minute. The North American Division Sabbath School curriculum for teens is quite demanding because it deal with the difficult issues of life; sexuality, occupations, the meaning of life, death and dying, ethics, etc. You cannot teach it with casual preparation. You cannot significantly touch the lives of your teens by finding an “easier” set of materials to use.
2. Programming. Perhaps once a month or one month of each quarter you will have the responsibility of planning and organizing the special features and group activities during the first half of the youth Sabbath School. This usually includes music, an opening prayer, time for the teens to share and mix, and an educational or spiritual feature such as a guest speaker, a film or video, a role play, a panel discussion or a learning game or simulation. There are program helps in the Youth Ministry Resource Magazine and they can be found in other resource materials from Christian publishers. The best programs include a lot of participation by the teenagers both in planning and implementation.
3. Spiritual Helper. Teenagers may come to you asking that you act as bridge between them and their parents. Often teens are very shy and you will want to preserve their dignity. Listening skills are important!

4. Teamwork. Group members need to know that they can depend on you and that your attendance and participation will be regular. You must take the time to communicate regularly with your division leader and the others involved. You may be asked to attend a planning session once a quarter, and this is a significant time to share insights about the needs of your teens, get your signals straight and coordinate calendars. The youth will pick up on confusion and disagreement between adult leaders, and this will dampen their involvement.
5. Music. You may have special talents with the piano or guitar, or even in organizing and leading a choral group. If so, that is undoubtedly the reason you've been asked to help with the youth Sabbath School! Music is an important part of worship and fellowship for teenagers, but they find it difficult to respect and get involved in a poorly run, traditional "song service." Music ministry with youth requires creativity and up-to-date resources. Use the youth hymnal-He Is Our Song (Review & Herald Publishing Association, 1988). If you would like to start a praise team, try the "Step by Step song service" (see below).

ACCOUNTABLE TO: SS Department Leader, SS Lower Division Superintendent, SS Council, Church Board

YOUTH LEADER

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for directing and coordinating events that minister to youth in High School.

JOB DUTIES:

1. To Chair the Youth Ministries Committee Council. You will want to work with your staff, SS Youth leader, the Adventist Youth Society and any other youth ministries leader of the church. The agenda at these meetings should include the scheduling of all activities, fund raisers and trips for the year. Together you can reduce overlap, look for gaps in programs, and coordinate efforts. Your leadership should encourage a cooperative spirit in which all of the leaders of the various programs work together.

2. To Plan and Program. It is your responsibility to working with the Youth Council in putting together an overall plan and budget for a comprehensive program of youth ministry activities for your church.
3. Program Administration. Work closely with church office and pastor as to scheduling events. Be considerate of other church programming. Plan events so they co-inside with church programming. All events must be voted for approval by the Church Board for insurance coverage purposes.
4. Information. You are the primary source of information about youth ministries to the congregation. You should put together a calendar listing all youth activities and events for the local church and see that these events get advertised in the church bulletin and newsletter. Keep an up-to-date, permanent record of all the youth in grades 9-12 who are members in the church and those of non-members who have attended outreach programs or visited Sabbath School. Also, provide information to your leaders about training events and new resources.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Teacher, Leadership, Evangelism

JOB DUTIES:

1. To hold Youth Council meetings throughout the year.
2. To plan fund raisers when needed.
3. To request and suggest a budget to the Finance Committee
4. To plan and organize a Youth Sabbath worship service at least once a year.
5. To encourage participation of youth in church ministries.
6. To encourage a cooperative spirit in which all of the leaders of the various programs work together.
7. To put together an overall program and budget for a comprehensive program of youth ministry activities for your church.
8. To work closely with church office and pastor as to scheduling events. Be considerate of other church programming. Plan events so they co-inside with church programming. Once a youth calendar of activities has been planned, it must be presented to the church board for approval for insurance coverage purposes.
9. To see that youth events get advertised in the church bulletin and newsletter, etc.
10. To keep an up-to-date, permanent record of all the youth in grades 9-12 who are members in the church and those of non-members who have attended youth programs or visited Sabbath School. Also, provide information to your leaders about training events and new resources for youth ministries.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Teacher, Leadership, Evangelism

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board

HOME AND SCHOOL LEADER

Adventist Church schools have been established under the direction of God. It has always been God's purpose to educate His children in a climate consistent with His will. He planned the first school in the Garden of Eden where His children were to learn the wonders of the world they lived in. The church operates a school system to provide children and youth with a balanced physical, mental, spiritual, social, and vocational education, with God as the source of all moral value and truth. The stated interest of the church is the restoration in each person of the image of the Creator, resulting in the optimum development of the whole person for both this life and the life hereafter.

Early in the Old Testament instruction was given that followers of God were to be taught in all significant areas of life; healthful living, civic order, social justice, purposeful work and the deeper meaning of God's divine character and law. (Deut. 6:1-25) This is the continuing mission of the Seventh-day Adventist school system.

But teachers alone, even loving, Christian teachers, cannot do the work of leading young people to salvation, knowledge, and maturity to our children. The most effective education will take place when teachers, parents, and church members work together to provide an environment where children can learn and grow. Paul compares the church to a body in which all of the parts "should have equal concern for each other. If one part suffers, every part suffers with it; if one part is honored, every part rejoices with it. Now you are the body of Christ, and each one of you is a part of it." (I Cor. 12:25-27 NIV) When parents support the church school and the teachers, everyone is honored and everyone rejoices.

Duties of the Home and School Leader

1. Promote Adventist Education. Your Leadership should seek to assure that every child in your church has the opportunity of attending a Seventh-day Adventist school. Show support for the principles of Christian education by your example and leadership.
2. Raise Funds. The Home and School Association can enhance the regular academic program of the school by creatively raising funds for items such as audio-visual aids, library resources, computers, and playground equipment. By uniting the parents and the school in a project to increase the effectiveness of the educational process you will also gain more cooperation and understanding between home and school.
3. Communicate with the Church. Several times during the school year you, or someone you appoint, should appear before the entire congregation to promote Christian education. Many members with no children in the church school will be willing to help support both financially and by volunteer work when they see the needs of the school and are aware of the work projects being done.
4. Encourage both Parents and Teachers. Parent education classes need to be offered to teach parents how to instill right character traits and lead children toward heaven. Any classes that will strengthen the home, or encourage family worship will be a blessing for the children of your church. Planning events to honor the teachers in your school will be a great encouragement to the Christian teachers who work with the children. Also encourage teachers to better themselves by attending seminars and retreats.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Leadership, Evangelism

ACCOUNTABLE TO: Church Board

PATHFINDER CLUB DIRECTOR

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for supervising and directing the activities of the Pathfinder Club which is organized under the principles of the General Conference Adventist Youth Society.

JOB DUTIES:

There are various elements that make up the Pathfinder Clubs' program. The main ones are listed below. The following also gives us an idea of the Pathfinder Club director's involvement in each:

1. Programming. A large share of the Pathfinder director's time is involved in organizing Pathfinder Club programming. These include a wide variety of activities such as
 1. Regular club meetings,
 2. Pathfinder Sabbath each year,

3. Social events,
 4. Campouts,
 5. Outreach projects
 6. Annual Pathfinder Fair
 7. Investiture etc.
 8. The programming of the Pathfinder Club is designed to provide a varied and interesting opportunity for children. The goal is to make the church so attractive and fulfilling for children that they will become actively involved.
2. Planning. The Pathfinder director develops a yearly calendar of activities and a budget. The Pathfinder Club staff gets involved by giving suggestions that might improve and expand on the ideas already presented. All plans must pass the approval of the church board and it must coordinate with the program of the local conference. 3. Recruiting and Supervising. The Pathfinder director is responsible for recruiting staff to help with club activities . The Pathfinder Club staff is made up of volunteers: adults and youth. All staff are under the supervision of the Pathfinder director.
 3. Teaching. The Pathfinder director assists the young people in learning outdoor skills; developing spiritual values (which of course is of prime importance to us as a church); and service methods which could be beneficial in saving lives in their communities. Crafts are always an enjoyable part of the meetings and the Pathfinder director should be right there (along with her or his staff) to answer any questions pertaining to completing various projects assigned.
 4. Listening to Parents and Children. The Pathfinder director is usually an individual who enjoys young people and can relate to them in a way that makes them feel comfortable around him. She or he should let them know by their actions and words that he/she is their friend and is there to listen to them when they have any problems, especially those of spiritual nature.
 5. Communication. The Pathfinder director should make sure the children, parents and the entire church is made aware that there is a viable Pathfinder Club. The program should be promoted in all departments since there are areas of interest to all ages.
 6. Discipline. Director and Staff must uphold the requirements of club membership in a fair and equal manner. All rules and regulations are for all members, no exceptions made. Once can be strict if one is fair!
 7. To serve on Church Board.
 8. To maintain the financial records of the organization.
 9. To get Church Board approval on all plans.
 10. To train someone to do your job.

SPIRITUAL GIFT(S) DESIRED: Teaching, Leadership,
ACCOUNTABLE TO: The Church Board

ADVENTURER CLUB DIRECTOR

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible for supervising and directing the activities of the Adventurer Club

JOB DUTIES:

There are various elements that make up the Adventurer Clubs' program. The main ones are listed below. The following also gives us an idea of the Pathfinder Club director's involvement in each:

2. Communicate with the church and community in order to promote the club. The Conference Adventurer Coordinator provides guidance in running the club, and may ask for regular reports to be sent to the conference office. A church Adventurer Executive Committee (including the pastor, Primary Sabbath school leader, church school teachers (optional), parent representatives, and Adventurer Club leadership/staff) will help to set the major policies and goals for the Adventurer club. The church board should be consulted regarding major decisions.

3. Staff the Adventurer Club with caring, well-qualified adults and teens. The Adventurer director will seek out persons who are clearly growing in the love of Jesus, love children, and work well with them. The director with the assistance of the pastor will see that each staff member is trained carefully, and given a job which is appropriate to the interests of the club.
4. Organize the Adventurer Club by working with the executive committee and staff to identify what goals and objectives need to be accomplished in the coming year. The director and staff may choose the general types of activities to take place. Staff are assigned to lead out in each area. Then a budget is set up, based on the income from church appropriation, club dues, and fund-raising. Finally, an amount is designated for each area of the club to spend.
5. Plan the club meetings and yearly calendar. Make a schedule of activities for each regular club meeting, and a yearly calendar which may include regular club meetings, special activity nights, family nights, Adventurer Family Network meetings, and yearly events such as Induction and Investiture.
6. Evaluate how well the club is reaching its goals. Take time at staff meetings to discuss ideas and concerns. Use what is learned to create a better, more effective club.

As Adventurer Club director, you will be ministering to children in grades 1-4. These young “Christians-in-training” are active, fun-loving, little people who have the capacity to truly love Jesus. As you discover the needs of the children and families in your church and community, you will acquire a vision of what the Lord wants to do through your Adventurer Club. You will seek to bring together staff and programming to help the children become more closely acquainted with the love of Jesus and His plans for them. This will help them acquire the habits, skills, and knowledge to live for Him in today's world. God has ordained parents to be their primary spiritual leaders, and you will seek to include and support them in every way you can through the Adventurer Club.

Resource Materials

1. An Adventurer Resource Catalogue from AdventSource .
2. The Adventurer Club Manual, available from your local conference, is the main resource for directing the Adventurer Club. A section on Club Organization contains all the information you need to start a club, plan activities and schedules, and organize staff. It describes the Adventurer uniform, and gives information on many other aspects of club organization.
3. Adventurer Activity Books for each grade level are available. They contain activity sheets for both the child and adult to complete each of the curriculum activities required for earning the Adventurer class pin.
4. Pins, patches, certificates, uniforms, and awards described in the manual are all available through your local conference Adventurer office.
5. Your local conference library, school, and bookstore have materials for you to borrow or purchase which may help in running the various aspects of your club.

ELDER

JOB SUMMARY: Responsible to provide spiritual leadership and guidance for the growth of the church according to her mission statement. Read job description in Church Manual and Elder's Manual

JOB DUTIES:

2. Commitment. It is especially for the local elder to be committed to the outreach of the church. The congregation needs to know that its leaders have a clear vision of the mission of the church. It has been said that church growth is "caught rather than taught. When an elder enthusiastically models a commitment of his or her time to outreach ministry, others catch the same spirit and commit themselves to the mission of the church. An elder should schedule time for ministering to the unsaved.
3. Church Administration. An elder should always attempt to make a positive contribution to the organization and progress of the church. While doing this, he or she should not try to dominate or control but rather enable others to participate in decision-making in the church and ministry. An elder often serves in an advisory capacity to various departments, committees, and projects. In doing this, the elder provides unity among the various programs of the church, communicates progress to the church board and encourages a unified mission.
4. Visitation. Nurture develops on a horizontal level in the church, with members offering encouragement and spiritual counsel to one another. In such a caring community, even the pastor is nurtured through the membership of the church. An elder can be a vital element in this kind of caring church. The elder can actively visit members in their homes, hospitals and care centers, encourage others to do so, and assist in the training of prospective members.
5. A Spiritual Mentor. The spiritual life of an elder should constantly lead members of the church to seek a deeper spiritual experience for themselves. I Timothy, chapter 3, describes the Christian life of an elder in these words: ". . . above reproach, the husband of one wife, temperate, prudent, respectable, hospitable, able to teach, not addicted to wine or pugnacious, but gentle. . ." An elder should model, by his or her devotional life, Christian personality, and spiritual interest, a higher ideal for each member to reach. The elder should reflect the fruits of the Spirit in his or her relationship with others: love, joy, peace, long suffering, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness and self control.
6. To attend the following meetings: Church Board, Personal Ministries Council, Church Business and Elders Council.

7. To practice fiscal responsibility by faithfully returning tithe and supporting the financial program (Personal Giving Plan) of the church.
8. Worship Leadership. The involvement and leadership of an elder can make a tremendous difference in the weekly worship service of the church. Quality leadership and participation can transform a dull, lifeless worship service into meaningful experience of praise. Skills in worship leadership, such as the reading of scripture; offering public prayers; planning the order of service; and delivering a sermon.
9. Doctrine. An Elder must be a continuous student of the Word. His beliefs and teachings must agree with the official teachings of the Seventh-day Adventist Church.

Scripture describes an elder as someone who has:

1. Knowledge, experience, and wisdom that church members can draw from for guidance and spiritual support (Acts 15:2, 6; 16:4).
2. The ability and will to shepherd and care for the body of believers (Acts 20:28-31; Hebrews 13:17).
3. A willingness and ability to teach and instruct others in spiritual matters (I Timothy 3:2; Hebrews 13:7; I Timothy 5:17; Acts 20:30).
4. The ability and will to equip and teach members how to share their Christian faith (Ephesians 4:11-13).
5. A positive example and influence among the church body and community (I Peter 5:3; Hebrews 13:7).
